

Governor Fletcher Much Worried Over Union-Journal Test Vote.

From the immense amount of paid advertising space which ex-Governor Fletcher is devoting to the Lyndonville Union-Journal's State-wide test vote, terming it a "Page selected list", a "sham ballot", etc., etc., it would seem that the matter is one which appeals to him as being of more than passing importance, and possibly the subject demands just a word before it is dropped from final consideration.

It must be borne in mind that in none of the paid advertising of Mr. Fletcher has it been claimed that the list which he characterizes as a "Page selected list" does not contain the name of every living member of the Legislatures of Vermont since 1910. None of ex-Governor Fletcher's newspaper friends has presumed to question the fact that the list contained the name of every attorney, of every physician, of every minister of the gospel, as well as of every State and county official from 1910 to the present time.

It would have been very easy to have disproved the Union-Journal's statement if it were untrue but being absolutely true, there was no other way but to try to laugh down the facts by crying "Sham Ballot", "Page selected list", etc.

The plain fact stands out, however, with all its force, that out of 3,846 replies received, only 121 showed a preference for Allen M. Fletcher for Senator.

The question which naturally suggests itself is how did it happen? Isn't the average man going to believe that the Allen M. Fletcher Club of Northfield approaches very close to the truth when it says that all the living members of the Legislature for the past six years, all the State and county officials, all the lawyers, all the physicians, all the clergymen, with members of the Grand Army, fraternal societies, granges, etc., come pretty near constituting a "Page selected list"?

Governor Fletcher is too bright a man not to see that, as showing his standing before the people of Vermont, this test vote is anything but a "sham", "burlesque", and "fake", as he would have the people of Vermont believe.

Page is Proud of this "Selected List."

CHERRY SEASON.

This Is the Time of Year When Fruit is at Its Best.

MANY WAYS TO USE IT.

Desserts and Salads Can Be Made as Well as Frozen Dainties—Several Recipes For Use of Cherries Given Below.

Try a cherry dessert with rice for the children's dinner. Drop large cherries into a hot rich sirup until they are heated through. Have some boiled rice ready and pile the cherries on a nest of it on the platter, serving the whole with whipped cream. Garnish, if possible, with a few cherry leaves or two or three clusters of the dipped cherries to which the stems are still fixed.

Cherry Salad.

Select some firm, ripe bananas that are not too long. Loosen a strip of the skin, turn this back with a spoon carefully and remove the inside in small pieces. Allow half a cup of the banana to each cup of cherries. To make the dressing, take the juice from the cherries and mix with lemon and orange juices to taste, sweetening with pulverized sugar as necessary. Pour this over the salad and put the mixture on the ice. Just before serving stir the ingredients together lightly, pack them into the banana cases and serve on individual plates garnished with cherry leaves and pitted cherries.

Cherry Betty.

Butter a deep baking dish and cover the bottom with a layer of stoned cherries. Sprinkle the fruit with sugar, nutmeg and coconut. Add sufficient cherry juice to moisten. On top of this spread a layer of breadcrumbs and continue in alternate layers of fruit and crumbs until the dish is full. See that the top layer is one of breadcrumbs. Cover and steam in the oven for one hour; then uncover and brown quickly. Serve hot with sweetened cream as a sauce.

Cherry Roll.

Sift together two cupfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a pinch of salt. Beat two eggs, add to them a cupful of milk and a rounding tablespoonful of melted butter. Mix with the dry ingredients to a light batter and stir in two cupfuls of pitted cherries. Turn into a well greased pudding mold having a tightly fitting lid and steam for two hours. Turn out, garnish with cherries and serve with hard sauce.

Cherries in Jelly Mold.

To one pint of juice drained from stewed cherries add sugar to make quite sweet and let it come to a boil. Dissolve a tablespoonful of granulated gelatin in cold water to cover, pour over it the boiling hot cherry juice and strain into a border mold. Set aside to become firm; then turn out carefully on a low glass dish, fill the center with pitted, sweetened cherries and heap over all whipped cream.

Cherry Shortcake.

Sift together two cupfuls of flour, a heaping teaspoonful of baking powder, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and a teaspoonful of salt. Rub in half a cupful of butter and mix with a well beaten egg added to a half cupful of milk. Make the dough soft, roll out about an inch thick and bake for about twenty-five minutes. When done split carefully, butter well and cover with half of the cherries, from which of course the stones have been removed. Sprinkle with sugar. Butter the top layer, cover the cherries, sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve with whipped cream. The cherries should be very ripe.

Cherry Toast.

Cook a pint of pitted cherries with a cupful of sugar until the fruit is tender. Have buttered slices of toast ready, pour this mixture over them and when cold serve with whipped cream.

E. P. Waite and wife of Whiting were in town Saturday.

 SPRAY OLD TREES.

 On many a dairy farm may be found an orchard of fifty or more apple trees. They are usually neglected and some have passed out of usefulness. Others are vigorous still and would with proper care give good returns. There is where careful spraying will show its best profit. These orchards were originally good ones—planted in the best soil with standard varieties. Nothing on the farm could give better returns on the investment than a thorough spraying of these old trees. Most of them will need some pruning, but the great need is spraying, and it should be attended to this year.—Rural New Yorker.

DEATH OF MRS. THERESA L. COLLINS.

Theresa Langworthy Collins, widow of Harrison Collins, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Cornell, at 12:15 Friday afternoon, July 28, of a complication of diseases. She was 74 years old. She is survived by one brother, George Langworthy of this village, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Cornell, with whom she lived, and Mrs. Laura Ellis of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Collins had been a life-long resident of Middlebury and was the daughter of George L. and Arvilla H. Langworthy. Her husband, Harrison Collins, died about 39 years ago. Mrs. Collins had been ill for about three years.

The funeral was held from St. Stephen's Episcopal church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. John Evans Bold, rector of the church conducted the services. The bearers were Allan Calhoun, John E. Weeks, Joseph M. Burke and James Rogers of Middlebury, Wallace E. Foote of Vergennes and Abram H. Langworthy of Burlington. Burial was in the West cemetery.

CARE OF RUGS.

How to Keep Your Floor Coverings So They Will Last.

It is inadvisable to attempt to clean valuable rugs yourself for obvious reasons, but during spring months the best way to clean rugs at home is to turn them right side down and tap them gently with a light flexible stick or piece of rubber on the wrong side and then sweep them with a dampened broom.

Do not under any circumstances use the ubiquitous vacuum cleaner on a rug, since it loosens the nap when drawing out the dust. Rugs should never be packed away for summer where they cannot have monthly inspection at least. The washing of rare rugs is a simple matter for the expert, but nearly impossible for the housekeeper. Never fold a handsome rug when putting it away. Roll it in sheets of newspaper and camphor between, and then wrap it in newspapers and sew it up tightly in an enveloping sheet of nonwool covering.

Eyes in a Portrait.

If a person's picture is taken with the eyes of the person looking directly into the lens or opening of the camera then the eyes in the picture will always be directly on and appear to follow whoever is looking at it. This is also true of paintings. If a subject being painted is posed so as to look directly at the painter and the artist paints the picture with the eyes so pointed then the eyes of the picture will follow you. When you are looking at a picture of a person and the eyes do not follow you you will know at once that he was not looking at the camera or artist when the picture was being taken or painted.
